Esrey Resources Ltd.

Notes to the consolidated financial statements
(Expressed in Canadian dollars)

1. Nature of operations

Esrey Resources Ltd. (the "Company" or "Esrey") was incorporated on February 24, 2000 in the Province of British Columbia, Canada and its common shares trade under the symbol "ESR" on the TSX Venture Exchange. The address of Esrey's registered office is Suite 1000, 355 Burrard Street, Vancouver, British Columbia, V6C 2G8.

Prior to September 30, 2019, the Company operated a pilot metal recovery plant in Macedonia which focused on developing a hydrometallurgical process to efficiently extract zinc and other metals from feed waste material on an economically viable scale. Activities at the pilot plant ceased in the fourth quarter of fiscal 2019. The Company expects that the hydrometallurgical process can also be applied in active mining operations and is currently seeking financing alternatives and is pursuing new mineral resources projects where this process can be used.

2. Basis of presentation and going concern

(a) Statement of compliance

These unaudited condensed consolidated interim financial statements have been prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS") as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board ("IASB") and interpretations of the International Reporting Standards Committee. They have been prepared in accordance with IAS 34 Interim Financial Reporting and should be read in conjunction with the Company's consolidated financial statements for the year ended September 30, 2020.

The significant accounting policies applied in these financial statements are based on IFRS and outstanding policies as of July 16, 2021, the date the Board of Directors approved the financial statements.

(b) Basis of measurement

These unaudited condensed consolidated interim financial statements have been prepared on an historical cost basis, and are presented in Canadian dollars, unless otherwise indicated.

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with IFRS requires management to make certain critical accounting estimates and exercise judgment in applying the Company's accounting policies. As a precise determination of many assets and liabilities is dependent upon future events, the preparation of consolidated financial statements for a period involves the use of estimates, which have been made using careful judgment. Actual results may differ from these estimates. The areas involving a higher degree of judgment, complexity, or areas where assumptions and estimates are significant to the financial statements are disclosed in Note 4 of the Company's audited consolidated financial statements for the year ended September 30, 2020.

(c) Going concern

These unaudited condensed consolidated interim financial statements have been prepared on the basis of accounting principles applicable to a going concern, which assumes the Company will continue in operation for the foreseeable future and will be able to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of operations.

Esrey Resources Ltd.

Notes to the consolidated financial statements
(Expressed in Canadian dollars)

2. Basis of presentation and going concern (continued)

The Company has a working capital deficit as at December 31, 2020. In the short-term, the Company will require funding to eliminate this working capital deficit. The Company has no ability to raise financing until its financial disclosures are up to date with the TSX Venture Exchange and other regulatory authorities in Canada. The Company is currently the subject of cease trade orders due to not having completed the audit and filing of its consolidated financial statements and MD&A for the year ended September 30, 2020, and the filing of its consolidated financial statements and MD&A for the three months ended December 31, 2020 and the six months ended March 31, 2021 by the required regulatory filing deadlines. The Company will actively seek to raise financing once the cease trade orders are revoked. There can be no assurance that short-term funding will be available to the Company when needed or, if available, that this funding will be on acceptable terms. If adequate funds are not available, the Company may not be able to continue as a going concern.

In the longer-term, the Company will require significant funding to seek new business opportunities in the mineral resource sector. There can be no assurance that funding will be available to the Company when needed or, if available, that this funding will be on acceptable terms. If adequate funds are not available, the Company may not be able to acquire new projects. Even if adequate funds are available, there is no guarantee that any new projects acquired would be successfully developed to a stage where they could generate future cash flows. As a result, uncertainties exist that may cast significant doubt with respect to the Company's ability to continue as a going concern.

In March 2020, the World Health Organization declared COVID-19 a global pandemic. The pandemic and any related public health developments have adversely affected workforces, economies, and financial markets nationally and internationally, potentially leading to an economic downturn. It is not possible for the Company to predict the duration or magnitude of the adverse results of the outbreak and its effects on the Company's ability to raise funds.

Management believes the use of the going concern assumption is appropriate based upon the assumption that the Company will have sufficient cash resources to meet its ongoing obligations as they become due in the normal course of operations. The Company has successfully raised financing in the past and while it believes that it may be able to raise the necessary financing in the future, market conditions may not be supportive of this.

These unaudited condensed consolidated interim financial statements do not include any adjustments to the amounts and classification of assets and liabilities that might be necessary should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern. Accordingly, the Company may be required to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities in other than the normal course of business at amounts different from those reflected in the consolidated financial statements.

3. Summary of significant accounting policies

The preparation of these unaudited condensed consolidated interim financial statements is based on accounting principles and practices consistent with those used in the preparation of the audited consolidated financial statements for the year ended September 30, 2020, amended, where applicable, by the adoption of the new amended accounting standards, if any, as outlined below. The accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated interim financial statements should be read in conjunction with the Company's audited consolidated financial statements for the year ended September 30, 2020.

6. Share capital (continued)

(e) Share appreciation rights plan ("SARs Plan")

On June 21, 2018, the Company's shareholders approved a SARs Plan which authorizes the directors of the Company to grant share appreciation rights ("SARs") to directors, officers, employees and consultants of the Company, excluding consultants performing investor relations activities. Pursuant to a SAR agreement (the "SAR Agreement") a SAR gives the holder the right to receive from the Company a cash payout equal to the difference between the fair market value of the Company's common shares at the time of exercise (determined as the closing price of such shares on the trading day prior to exercise) and the dollar amount set out in the SAR Agreement, which amount shall be not less than the Discounted Market Price (as defined under the policies of the TSX Venture Exchange) of the Company's shares at the time the SAR Agreement is entered into.

The material terms of the SAR Plan include:

- (i) the maximum term of a SAR is ten years from the date of the applicable SAR Agreement;
- (ii) the maximum number of SARs that may be issued under the Plan at any time is 1,000,000 subject to increase with disinterested shareholder approval; and
- (iii) the maximum number of SARs that can be granted to any one person in a 12-month period is a number equal to 1% of the then outstanding shares of the Company.

As at December 31, 2020 and September 30, 2020, no SARs have been granted by the Company.

7. Non-controlling interest

The Company has an 84.25% interest in Telemu, an oil and gas company incorporated in PNG. 15.75% of Telemu's equity (deficiency) and total comprehensive loss is allocated to the non-controlling interest using the indirect method. The non-controlling interest during the three months ended December 31, 2020, is comprised of the following amounts:

Balance, September 30, 2019	$	(305,770)
Non-controlling interests' share of Telemu's income		(4,348)
Foreign exchange translation		(2,907)
Balance, September 30, 2020		(313,025)
Foreign exchange translation		(9,251)
Balance, December 31, 2020	$	(322,276)

8. Loss per share from continuing operations

The weighted and diluted weighted average number of ordinary shares for the purposes of calculating loss and diluted loss per share is 100,175,306 for the three months ended December 31, 2020 and 2019. There were no stock options or other securities that had a dilutive effect on the calculation of diluted weighted average number of ordinary shares during these periods. As at December 31, 2020, the Company had 20,153,100 (September 30, 2020 – 20,153,100) potential ordinary shares that are anti-dilutive and are therefore excluded from the weighted average number of ordinary shares for the purposes of diluted loss per share.

The average market value of the Company's shares for the purposes of calculating the dilutive effect of share options and share purchase warrants were based on quoted market prices for the periods during which the options and share purchase warrants were outstanding.

- (b) There were no other non-cash transactions that occurred during the three months ended December 31, 2020 and the year ended September 30, 2020.

10. Related party transactions

Balances and transactions between the Company and its subsidiaries have been eliminated on consolidation and are not disclosed in this note. Balances and transactions between the Company and its joint venture are disclosed in Notes 4 and 5. Details of the transactions between the Company and other related parties are disclosed below.

During the three months ended December 31, 2020, the Company's related parties consisted of a private company controlled by the Company's chief executive officer ("CEO") as follows:

Related party	Nature of transactions involved	Relationship to the Company
Armex Mining Corp. ("Armex")	Accounts payable	CEO since February 27, 2020

(a) Transactions and accounts payable

During the three months ended December 31, 2020 and 2019, the Company did not have any related party transactions, other than loans or advances from directors, or companies owned by key management and directors as disclosed below.

On February 27, 2020, $592,997 due to former related parties of the Company (including former directors and officers) were assigned to Armex, a private company controlled by Allen Leschert, who assumed the role as the Company's CEO on that date. On February 27, 2020, certain amounts payable to unrelated parties were also assigned to Armex.

During the period from February 27, 2020 to December 31, 2020, Armex advanced funds to the Company primarily for general and administrative expenses. At December 31, 2020, a balance of $950,789 (September 30, 2020 – $944,763) was owing to Armex and has been included in accounts payable.

During the three months ended December 31, 2020, David Pasko, a director of the Company, advanced $1,200 to the Company primarily for general and administrative expenses. This amount has been included in accounts payable at December 31, 2020.

12. Capital management

The Company manages, as capital, the components of shareholders' equity. The Company's objectives when managing capital are to (i) safeguard its ability to continue as a going concern in order to acquire and develop new projects and (ii) to maintain a flexible capital structure which optimizes the costs of capital at an acceptable risk.

The Company manages its capital structure and makes adjustments to it in light of changes in economic conditions and the risk characteristics of the underlying assets. To maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Company may issue new equity if available on favorable terms, or seek loan financing if available on favorable terms.

The Company's policy is to invest its cash in highly liquid, interest-bearing, fully guaranteed bank-sponsored instruments with maturities of a year or less from the date of acquisition. The Company is not subject to externally imposed capital requirements.

13. Financial instruments

The Company's financial instruments consist of cash, amounts receivable, accounts payable and loan payable.

(a) Fair value estimation of financial instruments

Financial instruments that are measured subsequent to initial recognition at fair value are grouped into a hierarchy based on the degree to which the fair value is observable. Level 1 fair value measurements are derived from unadjusted, quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities. Level 2 fair value measurements are derived from inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability directly or indirectly. Level 3 fair value measurements are derived from valuation techniques that include inputs for the asset or liability that are not based on observable market data.

The carrying amount for cash, amounts receivable and accounts payable and loan payable on the statements of financial position approximate their fair value due to the short-term to maturities of these financial instruments. The carrying amount for loans payable approximates its fair value due to the short-term to maturity of this financial instrument.

(b) Financial risk management

The Company's financial instruments are exposed to certain financial risks, including credit risk, liquidity and funding risk, and market risk. There have been no substantive changes in the Company's exposure to financial instrument risk, the Company's objectives, policies and processes for managing those risks or the methods used to measure them from previous years.

The Board of Directors has overall responsibility for the establishment and oversight of the Company's risk management framework. The overall objective of the Board is to set policies that seek to reduce the Company's risk as far as possible without unduly affecting the Company's competitiveness and flexibility. Further details regarding these policies are set out below.

(b) Financial risk management (continued)

(i) Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk of an unexpected loss if a third party to a financial instrument fails to meet its contractual obligations. The Company's credit risk arises principally from the Company's cash and amounts receivable. Cash consists of cash on hand, deposits in major banks that are considered to be creditworthy, and highly liquid investments with an original maturity date of less than one year. Amounts receivable are comprised primarily of amounts due from a related party (Note 4(b)) and GST receivables from the government of Canada. The carrying values of the financial assets represent the maximum credit exposure.

(ii) Liquidity and funding risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company will not be able to meet its financial obligations as they fall due. The Company ensures that there is sufficient capital in order to meet short-term business requirements, after taking into account the Company's holdings of cash and cash equivalents, which are invested in business accounts and are available on demand.

Funding risk is the risk that the Company may not be able to raise financing in a timely manner and on terms acceptable to management. There is no assurance that such financing will be available when, and if, the Company requires additional financing (Note 2(c)).

In the normal course of business, the Company enters into contracts and performs business activities that give rise to commitments for future minimum payments. The following table summarizes the Company's significant remaining contractual maturities for current liabilities at December 31, 2020 and September 30, 2020.

December 31, 2020
	Less than 1 year	1 - 5 years	Total

(iii) Market risk

The Company is subject to normal market risks including fluctuations in foreign exchange rates and interest rates. While the Company manages its operations in order to minimize exposure to these risks, the Company has not entered into any derivatives or contracts to hedge or otherwise mitigate this exposure.

(1) Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk arising from the effect of changes in prevailing interest rates on the Company's financial instruments. The Company has minimal exposure to interest rate fluctuations on its cash and cash equivalent balances due to current low market interest rates. The amounts due to related parties and the loans payable are non-interest bearing.

(2) Foreign currency risk

Some of the Company's cash, expenditures, loans and accounts payable are denominated in the US Dollar, Papua New Guinea Kina, Macedonian Denar and European Euro. The Company's exposure to foreign currency risk arises primarily on fluctuations between the Canadian dollar and the other currencies. The Company has not entered into any derivative instruments to manage foreign exchange fluctuations.

14. Contingencies

Due to the nature of the Company's operations, various legal, tax, environmental and regulatory matters are outstanding from time to time. By their nature, contingencies will only be resolved when one or more future events occur or fail to occur. The assessment of contingencies inherently involves the exercise of significant judgement and estimates of the outcome of future events.

- (a) During the year ended September 30, 2018, the Company incurred costs for investigating various industrial sites in Macedonia for a suitable location for the Company's then-proposed full-scale hydro-metallurgical zinc processing plant. The costs included 250,000 euros ($382,135) which the Company paid as a non-refundable deposit for the purchase of a certain parcel of land in Macedonia. The purchase transaction was not successfully consummated as a result of circumstances within the control of the seller. As a result, the Company believes that it has a claim for the refund of the deposit and is pursuing the recovery of the deposit through the legal system in Macedonia. The outcome of this matter is currently uncertain.
- (b) During the year ended September 30, 2019, PRG (a third-party Macedonian company) filed a claim against Esrey ZM, the Company's Macedonian subsidiary, for 824,836 denars ($19,423) plus interest and procedural costs for unpaid invoices which Esrey ZM had been disputing. Esrey ZM has formally filed an objection to the claim and an appeal to the local court. The Company has recorded this amount in accrued liabilities as at December 31, 2020 and September 30, 2020.

While the outcomes of these matters are uncertain, based upon the information currently available, the Company does not believe that these matters in aggregate will have a material adverse effect on its financial statements. In the event that management's estimate of the future resolution of these matters changes, the Company will recognize the effects of these changes in its financial statements in the period in which such changes occur.
